

Scarlet Letter Vocabulary Chapter 11-15

Chapter 11

Forlorn: looking sad or lonely because of abandonment

Amiable: friendly, likable

Veneration: showing profound respect

Abomination: abhor, hate, disgust

Hypocrite: to say one thing and do another

Introspection: self-examination, to closely at your thoughts and ideas

Ethereal: not earthly, heavenly, not substantial

Deluded: to misguide someone

Chapter 12

Obscure: not clearly understood or expressed

Chapter 13

Pristine: a pure state, mint condition

Morbid: being interested in unwholesome thoughts or actions

Calamity: catastrophe

Auspicious: favorable, lucky

Chapter 14

Accosted: to approach and speak to aggressively

Chapter 15

Malignant: highly injurious

Nuptial: relating to marriage

Capricious: impulsive, spontaneous

Enigma: something that is mysterious, puzzling

Propensity: tendency to do something